

The CERES S'COOL Project

Lin Chambers and David Young
NASA LaRC, Hampton, VA

Carolyn J. Green, Doug B. Stoddard, & Roberto Sepulveda
SAIC

22nd CERES Science Team Meeting
Huntsville, Alabama
September 20-22, 2000

The CERES S'COOL Project

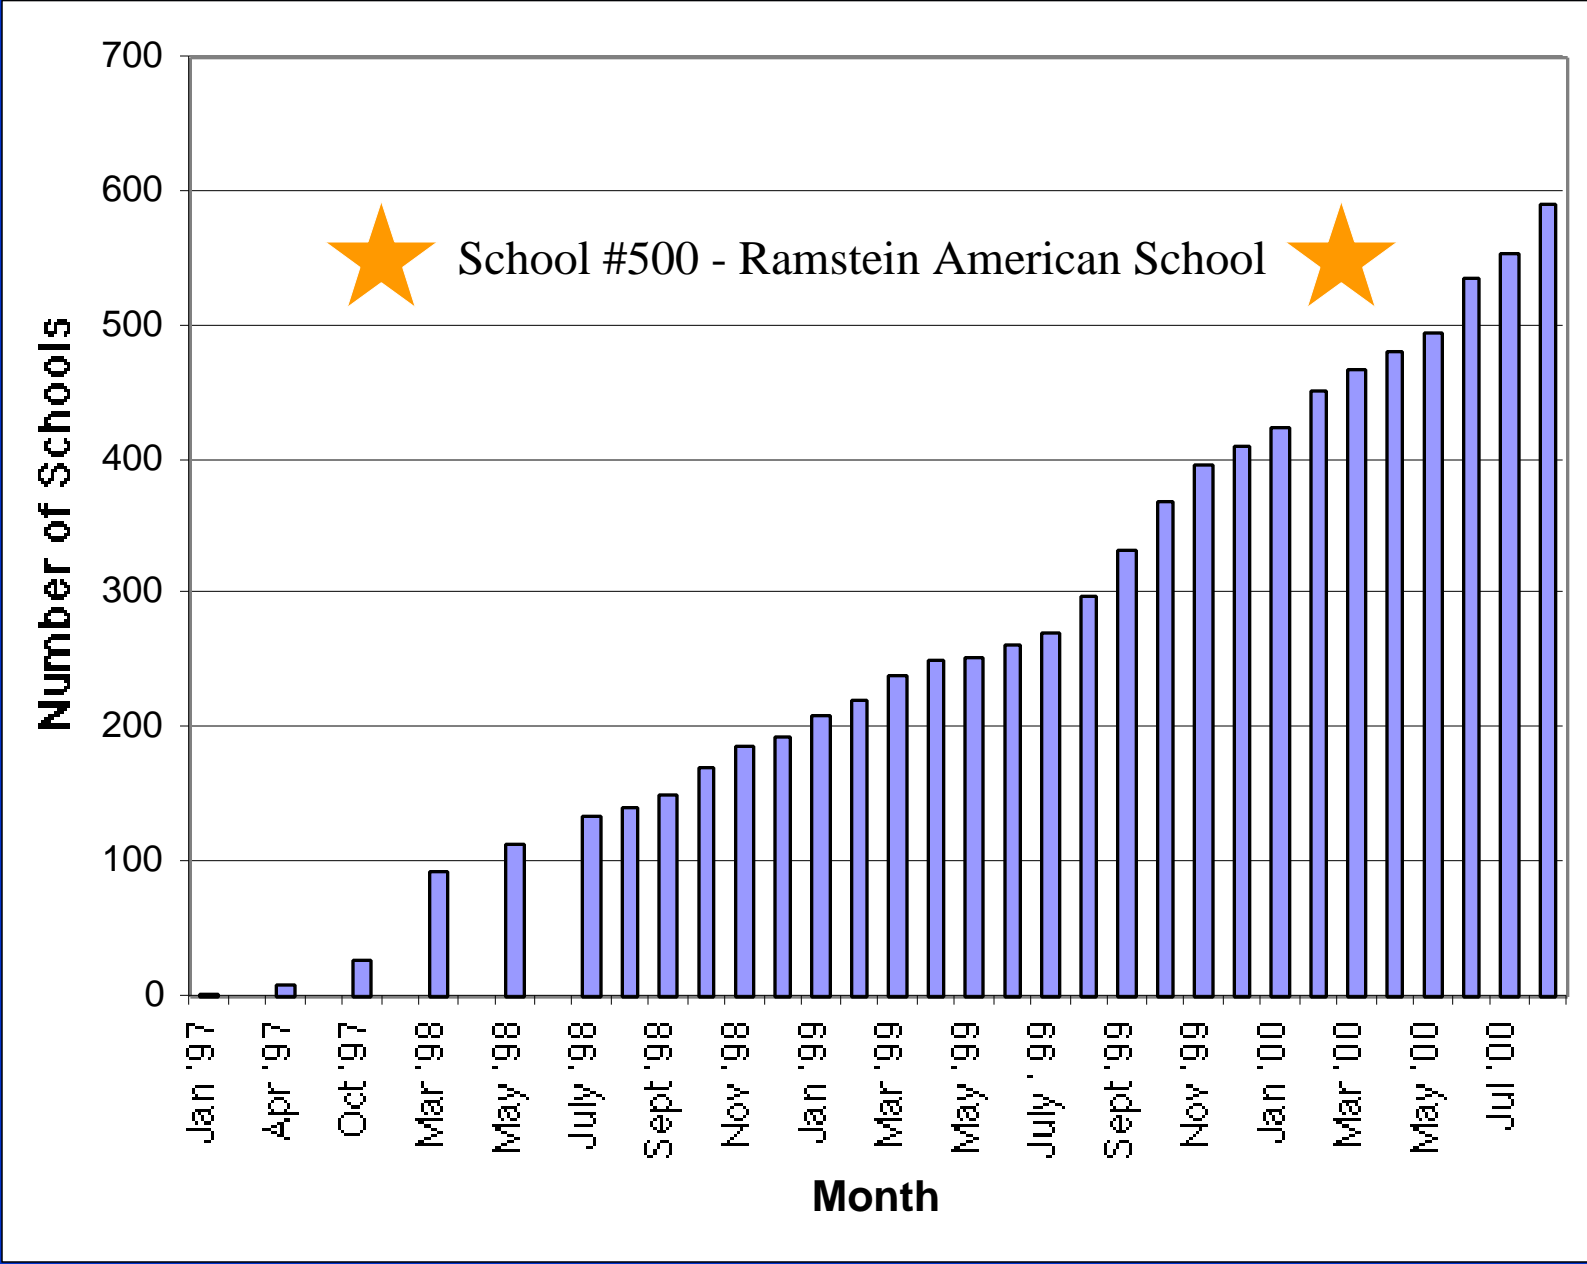

Over 600 participating schools
Student observers in over 44 nations
More than 4500 observations to date

S'COOL Accomplishments
Since May 2000
CERES Science Team Meeting

- Reached the 500 Participant Milestone (Added 111 Schools)
- Held Very Successful Week-long Teachers' Workshop
 - 18 Teachers from 3 States
 - 7 Guest Speakers
- Seven Conference Presentations
- Sent the Latest Newsletter to 744 Subscribers
- Hired Doug Stoddard and Roberto Sepulveda
- Expanded Satellite/Surface Comparison Study
 - Performed by Summer Student Amanda Falcone
 - Database Now Includes 1998 TRMM Data
 - Graphical Comparison Added to Web-Based Database

Growth of S'COOL Participation

Future Plans

- Intensive Observation Period Planned for October 9 - 13, 2000
- Conference schedule to focus on Rural and Disadvantaged Education, as well as Bilingual and Foreign Language Education
- Planning underway for July 16-20, 2001 S'COOL Teacher Workshop. Open to all 50 states.